ANNANDALE, VA — Virginia Hospital Center has opened a new office location on Little River Turnpike in Annandale that will offer primary care, OB/GYN services and physical therapy.

Patients will be able to seek treatment from primary care providers Aida Girma MD and Virginia Wu FNP. OB/GYN services will be available at the Annandale location starting in April, with care provided by Yvonne Pierce MSN, RN, WHNP-BC and an OB/GYN physician.

The new Virginia Hospital Center Physician Group office is at 7611 Little River Turnpike.

"Several of our doctors grew up in that area, so it remains a special place to them, and they are happy to be able to bring VHC's model of patient-centered, quality care to their community," William Anderson, MD, Virginia Hospital Center Physician Group senior vice president, said in a statement.

Having the physical therapy services in the same location at the new Annandale office "gives us the advantage of having real-time communications with primary care physicians, which can mean getting patients on the road to recovery faster and not having to come back for a separate visit," said Sandy Austin, Virginia Hospital Center's Director of Rehabilitation.
